and as Many Goals.

MIDDIES DEFEATED BY COLUMBIA

The Game, Which Was Closely Contested from Start to Finish, Resulted in a Score of Six to Five, Freyer's
Failure to Kick the Goal giving Victory to Columbia.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 20.—The University of Pennsylvania football team was defeated by the Columbia team today in a game which was one of the most exciting in the history of the sport. The score, 6 to 5, was a result of Freyer's failure to kick the goal.

The game was put up a stiff game, however, and was evenly matched. West Point played a superior game of football. After Pennsylvania kicked off, the ball was in West Point's possession on her own thirty-yard line. Bunker, quarterback, carried the ball to Pennsylvania's fifty-yard line, where Pennsylvania's fifty-yard line, where Pennsylvania was given the ball for offense. Pennsylvania, however, was forced to kick again. Freyer's failure to kick the goal, however, was a great help to the team.

On the next line-up, after an exchange of punts, Dan, on a fake kick, simply twisted, zig-zagged and stole his way through the whole Pennsylvania team and ran sixty-five yards down the field, where McAndrew was put through the line, and he sprinted for another touchdown. Daly kicked the goal.

Final score: West Point, 24; Pennsylvania, 0.

MIDDIES BEATEN.

Columbia Was by Narrow Margin, Score
Being Six to Five.
(By Associated Press.)

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 20.—The Columbia team beat the Middles today, but by a very narrow margin. The game, which was closely fought from beginning to end, resulted in a score of 6 to 5 for the New Yorkers, but was in doubt until the last minute.

When the game was called Belknap kicked off for the navy. The Middles began to hammer the Columbia line, which yielded slowly to the weight the Middles threw upon it. Nichols, Freyer and Land rushed the ball forward and Land scored the first touch-down, after five minutes of play.

In the second half, Columbia started in heretofore to redeem herself. The navy's rush tactics again, but Columbia's defense seemed stronger and the Middles were forced to do considerable kicking. Columbia, on the other hand, began smashing the navy's line right and left, using several trick plays to advantage at the same time. With the ball in the navy's second line, Columbia used a formation play, and Captain Berkehen broke through the navy's line and ran the distance for a touch-down. Bruce kicked goal.

In the remaining time the navy tried hard to score, but failed. The line-up:

A Hard-Fought Game Between Richmond College and Randolph-Macon.

Dr. Hannon, after various efforts to secure the bishop's eye and ear, finally got the door and supported the memorial in an address creating much laughter. Dr. Hannon last night in that classic English of which he is master, said Dr. Hannon, had characterized the presiding elder as a "bob-tailed bishop." "and we want to lengthen their tails," said Dr. Hannon, amid applause.

Dr. Whitcomb declared that he had distinctly stated that the expression was quoted from David S. Doggett.

There were numerous other addresses on the memorial of greater or less length. One by Rev. J. Sidney Peters deprecated tendency to shirk and wink in legislation. The plan of large districts would work in the North, in crowded sections, but it would not work in the South. In the course of his remarks he spoke of the habit of some preachers of ruminating by shrug and wink in the stewards' meetings the presiding elders.

Rev. B. F. Lipscomb declared that the insinuation was unjust, and said he was sorry Mr. Peters had introduced that line of thought into the discussion.

Mr. Peters declared that he was unfortunate in placing himself in an unfortunate position before his brethren. He declared that he intended no reflection whatever on any of the brethren.

Mr. Lipscomb closed the discussion with a concise statement of his reasons for favoring the memorial. These reasons were three: That its purpose, carried out, would create a better class of presiding elders, would insure better work in the office, and would bring about a better state of feeling on this subject.

THE MEMORIAL LOST.

The committee had reported adversely on this memorial. A motion to approve the memorial and the report was lost by a vote of 105 to 95. The report of the committee was then adopted and the Conference proceeded with the report.

The memorial offered by Dr. J. C. C. Newton, etc., regarding a slight change in the charter in the discipline regarding missions, and providing for a plan of mission work in cities of over 50,000 inhabitants, was not approved by the committee, whose report was sustained by the Conference.

Dr. A. C. Smith, chairman of the Board of Education, reported a substitute for the language used in the report read the day before and objected to by Dr. Starr; the latter made a brief personal statement and the Conference proceeded to the adoption of resolutions regarding the memorial.

Other resolutions recommended to the attention of pastors a number of church papers, among them the Baltimore and Richmond Christian Advocate, and the Christian Advocate, of Nashville. The bishop was also asked by resolution to make appointments to Conference editorships.

ANNUAL SERMON.

It was announced that Rev. S. C. Hatcher had been selected to preach the sermon next year before the class of elders, with Rev. W. G. Starr as alternates.

Other business transacted by the conference previous to the introduction of the report from the Committee on Memorials included the report of the Rosebud societies, showing receipts amounting to $2,200.55, with Johnston holding the banner; a resolution of thanks, offered by Dr. Hannon, to the members of the board, for facilities furnished the conference, and to Mrs. Wray and the ladies associated with her in the collection and distribution of conference mail; the report of the Committee on Sunday Observance, read by Dr. Royal, deploring the increasing tendency toward Sabbath violation by saloons and in the matter of beer gardens and excursions, and referring with particular commendation to the accomplishment of the Sunday closing movement in Richmond.
